

Paul Solomon Source Reading 9459

The Economy

Question: What are the new trade, marketing and control systems for businesses which harmonize with Nature?

Answer: You must establish absolutely value for value exchange. Understand that economy in this day is based on the ability of individuals to manipulate artificial values – symbols. Such manipulation of certificates of value – which do not represent kind for kind, value for value – has led to the scandal that you experience now, and the need for [the] total restructure of the nature of economy. Let those who would understand study the treaties or essays called Eco Numia: an ancient teaching. Then learn that economy has laws – and they are not political.

Economy in this day is operated according to political expediency. This is false economy, and builds a structure, which must collapse. The collapse has begun around you as you see its manifestation throughout the Soviet Union. As the nations of the world attempt to manipulate this disaster, you will find it spreading like a disease, epidemic among nations, and requiring a restructuring of the economy of the world. Do be warned that within the next 20 years, those whose riches are written on paper and are not value that is real – can be held in hand – as land, as existing structures with inherent value, those whose riches are on paper will lose. Those whose riches lay in talent, in performance, in real substances, these will gain and retain their wealth.

Paul Solomon