

The Great Cloud of Witnesses

Paul Solomon Reading 9024 - L - 9019 - FA - 0001 - SH, Hearthfire Lodge, Virginia April 4, 1993

Question 1: For what purposes did I incarnate in this particular lifetime...?

Yes, we have gathered here not only the Records, witnesses pertaining to this soul in development in the cycles of return and the purposes in this time. But we have as well gathered here that Great Cloud of Witnesses concerned with the effect, world-wide, effect that was the purpose of this incarnation, this lifetime.

Now that is to say that there are two Records gathered here and two great companies of the Witnesses. Both of the comrades in faith and the teachers, the Masters, one company, those as are karmically connected with the incarnate soul, as is the custom of these Readings. That the Records, the impressions by a soul through its experiences and expression, those Records written on the skein of time and space, the Akasha, are brought before the channel. And as those Records are brought, so then is brought the consciousness of various entities, friends, enemies, those whom the life has touched throughout incarnation after incarnation, and these consciousnesses, sometimes even those still incarnate in this time with you are brought as witnesses. Thoughts from their minds, judgments they have made, interactions through the karmic connection are brought. These then are referred to as the Witnesses. The teachers, the helpers, those who have been attracted to this soul.

For as you live your life, you not only attract those incarnate about you who are attracted perhaps to personality, appearance, or to similar likes and dislikes, but souls are attracted to you, those in the Unseen who are similarly attracted to your nature, personally, and particularly your likes or dislikes, your interests.

So this soul has drawn here that very host of friends who are witnesses to the lessons, the needs, the karmic situations, and are as influences upon the interpretation and application of that recorded in the Records.

Now all of this is by way of explaining the usual circumstances of these Records through this channel....

Yet in this instance as we come before you tonight, there is another company brought for this particular reason. The soul that is before us had ambitious commitments to purpose for incarnating in this time. Not just for the self, but the soul incarnated for the purpose of affecting the consciousness of the planet. And those great souls with similar ambition, those from the Manu of the Great Brotherhood from most ancient day, often referred to as the Great Cloud of Witnesses, those souls who are as interested in the evolution of consciousness on your planet as are you, are drawn here in this time.

Could you see, could you but feel those who have entered here, you would know that it might be said to you, as was said to Moses, "Remove your shoes, for you stand on holy ground."

You exist in this moment in the presence of those who have walked with God and are committed to those purposes you seek to commit yourself to in this time.
