

Catastrophe Is Not Necessary for the Changes to Come

So then might your feet walk even as His walked. So you might be caught up on the clouds to be with Him as those changes would take place. As this earth would be seen even as a piece of clay in the hand of the Master, that it may be crushed, that it may be re-formed, remolded. Might not that vessel that would express further the beauty of God be pounded first into that ball of clay, then flattened, then brought into perfect shape by the skilled hands of the Master.

See then that this earth, not for punishment, but for perfection, would be crushed then beneath the heel of His hand. Those then who have prepared themselves, have become the vessels, the instruments, would they not be caught up even in the ethers, then, waiting with Him? Becoming then the bride of Christ, marrying self. And in the marriage, would not the two become one. And as this ball of clay then again is set spinning in its portion of the universe, then would not your spirits, those that have been perfected, gather about, bringing a new heaven and a new earth.

Oh that we might lift the scales from your eyes and see that that we look forward to even on this plane. And there is here such anticipation, such longing. And so many have gathered in this Presence at this moment seeking that we urge you that you would express Him, the vibrations, even now, the perfection. That there might not be the waiting, but that the Son of God would come in the clouds. Even so, come Lord Jesus.

Then allow that that day might come now, for there is untold beauty waiting to unfold that might be expressed through you if you would so give self to His expression. Then be it so. See the beauty that would awaken if there would be the expression of the Christ in this world in this day. Be it in that manner....

..... And as the Christ would begin to manifest through this earth, so these human bodies would be torn apart and perfected by such great a vibration, such walking with Him, so then would Spirit project itself into this earth that it be remolded and raised.

Then look for His coming. Look up often into the clouds, into the sky, onto His stars, and see the Light as it would come. Already forming in the cloud about the earth is His Presence. Look up often. Look up often into His face. Look up into awareness of the closeness of the Father, of the Spirit of all of this universe.

And those who have gathered even from other planes, from other planets, they wait just beyond the borders of your atmosphere. Sitting then, available to express Him in this time and waiting to swarm down into this atmosphere expressing His love, expressing His presence, and attempting to raise the vibrations and set aright the axis of this earth that it may so perfectly express the wisdom, the Presence of God.

And those out of balance, those not given to God, will they not be destroyed? Will they not cry from the rocks of the mountains? (Rev. 6:15) That these bodies be re-perfected, re-molded, remade in His own image.

Then begin that work in this day that it not be necessary to be brought about through these catastrophes, these changes. That these would not be brought about by being wrenched in the twain by such energy, such forces coming. But thou art given all that you would need for the perfection of these bodies, for the raising of your level of vibration to His Presence. Then so do. Express Him in this world until He come.

Paul Solomon Reading 0139 – W - 0030 - GR – 0006A - JDE, February 25, 1973

© 2007 The Paul Solomon Foundation