

If You Would be The Healer

Paul Solomon Reading 0152 - WK – 0030 – GR – 0010 – GR. Atlanta, Georgia, April 25, 1973

Now ... understand the Laws of Healing. If you would be the healer, it is because thou art responsible for the welfare of thy brother. And do you help him by judgment, by criticism, or would you help him by lifting his burden?

(Do not criticize or judge)... but seek healing ... for the purpose that the body might be used in service. (So will God give thee that perfect body.) The Laws of God do not fail. How can you doubt? Then be perfect, for imperfection in itself is failure to express thy God.

(Then ask rather) “How may I help? What may I give that I may lift those about me?”;
