

I Am God

Paul Solomon Reading 0186 - LH - 0131 - MA - 0001, June 15, 1973

That which you are, the understanding of that which is self, that which is real, that which should be cultivated:

That one who could learn the importance of The Law of One, the lack of importance of individuality or the casting away, the rejection of the necessity to manifest individually. The importance of this has separated man from God.

The greatest lesson of all life would be to learn that lesson,

“I Am God.”

© 2007 The Paul Solomon Foundation