

The Mission and Purpose Of the Fellowship of the Inner Light

As Told by the Paul Solomon Source

Paul Solomon Reading #9379 - W - 0030 - GR - AB, Virginia Beach, Virginia, May 17, 1991

The mission, the purpose, the highest ideal of the Fellowship of the Inner Light is to establish, firmly establish, that there is a singular power of creation. And there is as well a shadow power. The shadow power is that which is empowered by the imagining of men in their own minds - to the extent that men, in their own minds, have created Hell and evil. In establishing a belief in duality on this planet, man became a cleft-brain species, and at the same time, established that that which grows must die to become nourishment again.

However, understand this: the one power that was never given to man was the ability to either create or experience death. Understand that nothing, nothing that you know of as living, is capable of dying, for the plant, returning to the ground, never loses the power of life. It only transforms and reappears. And so it is with all that is created.

But the appearance of duality has been established by the acceptance of duality in the consciousness of man - in the act that is referred to as eating, partaking of, and digesting of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil." This means the taking in of the concept of duality - light and darkness, good and evil, life and death.

But there is only one power. It is the power of Life. It is the purpose, the commission of this Fellowship to establish that that power that is called Life, Love, and Light is literally a force with more available energy than all the powers associated with destruction and death.

If this simple truth can be established in the minds and hearts of even a few so that their brain-minds are reconstructed in the sense of building a crown of enlightenment, the unified mind will discover the unified field which will make sense of the universe. Then, we will have established a firm foundation for the energy that is Christ manifesting in the mind, the Higher Mind of all mankind, manifesting as a being whom all can see and know, even at one time, over all the planet. This, then, is the stated purpose and ideal of the Fellowship of the Inner Light.

In accomplishing this, we commission you to establish a family. If there is one loss to humanity which could outweigh all other losses of the last generations, it is the loss of the united family. There is a need for family. Man is a tribal creature. You must build a family, an international family, so bonded to one another, that the bonds even exceed those of blood bonds. And in bonding in such a way, individuals committed to Love as the higher power and to peace can bring harmony to the planet.

See yourselves as the modern day Essenes - not so much to prepare yourselves as pregnant people to give birth to the Second Coming of the Christ - but rather Essenes expectant of giving birth to that one who will state the Law of One in such a way as to be understood - that it is not necessary to destroy matter in order to release energy. For this one will be the highest initiate of the planet and he who ushers in the dawning of a new day.

Thus you must continue your work: the building of a worldwide family, the teaching, establishing and proving at every level and through every means at your disposal that Love is an energy, a vital force. It is the essence of Life itself, the building block of matter, the primal force of the universe. It is Light, and no darkness can stand against it.

Seek to establish, to prove, to believe it in your own lives. Live and speak as if it were so. Rid yourselves of fear, and know that it is a basic and simple truth that an individual - one born in the flesh who could live a life without ever experiencing a thought, a fantasy, an imagining which would empower fear - would be physically immortal, would never die.

Yet this is not the central purpose - not to produce physical immortality - but rather to understand that fear derives its power, its only power and force, from the creative force given to man for the purpose of realizing himself to be one with his Source. The very power of creation itself in the mind of man is that which builds and empowers the shadow force known as fear and death.

Then let it be the central, first, foremost, the highest purpose of this Fellowship to cause individuals to have a personal experiential encounter and relationship with their creative Source. To accomplish this, you must create within them a sense of being worthy of meeting God face to face. That is your highest of ideal and purpose.

Paul Solomon Reading #9379 - W - 0030 - GR - AB, Virginia Beach, Virginia, May 17, 1991

What is the Fellowship of the Inner Light? Understand, first and foremost, it is a family. It is an extended family of those who share a recognition of God as Living Love. It is a worship center that is interfaith and non-denominational. It is a gathering place for those who would learn, study, live, and practice Living Love and ageless wisdom.

It is a school, and it is a church. But it is an alternative kind of church, not bound by doctrine or dogma, apart from your credo, which does not disenfranchise the many of different faiths who come together to worship in love and understanding.

The Fellowship of the Inner Light is all of this. But because the word "church" is often associated with organized religion, we have chosen the word "Fellowship." Thus, you are a fellowship committed to the Source of all, and to Living Love. Let it ever be said about you, "See how they love one another."

Paul Solomon Reading 9014 - W - 0030 - GR - SH, Virginia Beach, Virginia, February 7, 1983

If you are to fulfill the mission of the Fellowship of the Inner Light, you must become the Essenes, the pregnant ones, the vessel, the vehicle through which the Messiah might be ushered into a time of the reigning of peace on this planet.

Now, you have gathered for no less purpose than that. If you would lift your sight and your understanding to that purpose, lift it beyond the concept of an organization or a structure, to a mission, an ideal, a purpose. It is for this that you have been drawn together - to know one another and to accomplish this great work.

You are Israel - in either the lower or the higher meaning of that term. You are either Israel struggling with God, fighting against Him at every turn, resisting. Or you are Israel, the prince of the Lord - a prince who has come to know his rightful place as a child of the King and his responsibility to rule over the kingdom, causing that kingdom to be a more pleasant place because of the manner in which he rules.

And how would you become Israel, the chosen? How would you create a network, a vehicle, a communication opportunity, a receptacle, an instrument which John the Beloved, the Harbinger, might pick up and use as a means for communicating, for contacting all the earth? How would you become such a people?

First, become a Fellowship, a family, a nation, a company of individuals who are recognized by their supportive relationship of one another. Let it be said of you, "See how they love one another." And when you have begun to relate to one another in such a way, the questions of structure, of organization, of fund-raising, the next steps in accomplishing the work - all these things become simple, for they are secondary. And they are rather automatic within a group of people who have lost fear and suspicion of one another. It is a kingdom of peace that you are to usher in. It is the dawning of a new day, a new age.

Learn love and respect for yourself. Learn love and respect for one another in this organization. And if you have been prone to criticize these little ones that are a part of the work, for their inability, their lack of experience, their un-businesslike manner, study the Christ and his twelve. Look for the systems analysis among their relationships. They argued. They were not efficient or effective - until a time of transformation. And that transformation did not incorporate a schooling in business or new structures. It was a discovery of love.

When love came, competition among them, the comparisons of one with another ceased. And shoulder to shoulder, they set out to conquer the world. And they did. Those twelve poorly-educated, inexperienced men, affected the entire world of their day, and yours.

And so these gathered here who are a part of the Fellowship, however inexperienced and untutored, have all that is needed, have been chosen by this Source for a purpose. When you have developed love and respect for yourselves, for one another, and when you so totally enjoy being together and being about the work that is created for you, then you will begin to be effective in creating the dawning of a new day. People will begin to say, "See how they love one another." But they will also begin to say, "See how effectively they work with one another."

Can you begin to visualize a time when a loving family - committed, very committed, and identifying themselves as part of a Fellowship family in one country, and another, and another - are so drawn together, communicating with one another so effectively that the antagonism between the governments of those countries will be erased by their actions. You will have won a war without bloodshed, a war fought with love and peace, for the first time in all of history. You will have overcome darkness with light. And you will have proved that love is stronger than fear.

You must prove it first within yourself, at this level, within this family, within this room. And if the love between you can conquer the fear in you of one another, then you have won the first battle of the war of Armageddon. Let it begin here. Take up your swords and let this be the beginning of a strong nation of individuals who will claim that prize of the high calling - the preparation of the way for the Messiah, the introduction of the Prince of Peace, onto this earth in this time. That is the task that is set before you.

© 2007 The Paul Solomon Foundation