

Paul Solomon Prophecy Readings

Paul Solomon Reading 0010 Atlanta, Georgia, March 24, 1972

Channel: I see the tunnel. It's different. Something is happening here, the people [are] dancing and singing. It's like a festival or something. It's the Hall of Records.

Question 1: Why have... we were told that the three of us were brought together for a reason, could you please now give us an understanding of this reason?

Answer 1: Now it has been given, in speaking of each of the three, that you will work together each in his specific calling and his own way toward the coming of the Day of our Lord. Now, this description will be given: First, there is a message here that is the reason for your impression that this Source should be contacted this night, for there is this that you might not have realized had you not come in this moment, and it is a blessing too great to be missed.

For you may see at this moment in your mind's eye that phenomenon which occurs on this plane, and even not only here but at the very Throne of God Himself, the Throne of those Universal Forces.

For as this channel can look upon now, and as each of you will experience to the blessings of God in your own heart and life, there are at this moment angels singing and rejoicing. There are trumpets, there are those things which this channel might describe as best he can in those words that now convey thoughts on your plane that are so inadequate to describe those things of Heaven, and that you might be blessed.

This is the reason for rejoicing in Heaven this moment, as is given in your own Scripture, "Even the angels in Heaven before the Throne rejoice at the bringing of one lost soul to the Savior." Now we have looked upon and we have seen the rejoicing among you tonight, and the great happiness that each of you found as one came to find that great blessing of recognizing God in his own heart. And even as you were blessed, realize this: How much more all those Sons of God that come before the Throne were blessed even in this sphere, in this realm. The angels even now, at this moment, are rejoicing.

Question 2: Can you give us a better understanding of when and what is to come, and what is meant by "the coming of the Day of our Lord?"

Answer 2: As just stated, and this we would explain in this manner: As has already come to your attention, you are living in the last age, the last day, and very near the dawning of the Day of our Lord. What then will you see? What will be the manifestations of this coming?

We will first see that you are now in the midst of a forty-year period of trial, of testing for that preparation. And this period of the forty years, which as given through the entity Cayce, was spoken of as being from the years 1958 through the year 1998.

These are the periods where there will come those manifestations of natural alterations within the earth's sphere; these things as have been given that the east and west coasts of the United States will crumble away into the sea; the rising again of Atlantis which is already begun and has already been detected; the changing of the areas of northern Europe as "in the twinkling of an eye," and this is upon you; and eventually those shiftings of the poles which will come in that last time.

Now these are things as will be seen in the earth: The physical manifestations and the preparing of a new sub-race, a race of entities lower, as you would think, than that which is now considered the human race; and then the greatest of all these things which is now in preparation and which would be then the coming again to the Earth of Him who became the Christ. This, then, in itself is the particular event you are to work toward and prepare for, for no date may be given for this event; the reason being, then, that it is in your hands.

Now realize that, for this is the importance of your calling. It is in your hands to decide what day that will be. You ask, then, how can this be? It is so in this manner: The Second Coming of your Lord Christ will come when those who have been chosen to prepare the way, those who have become righteous in his own life, when they have prepared the way that the gates may be opened that Christ may be accepted, that the way may be clear, that He may come in glory.

This, then, is your job. This is the calling for which you have been singled out and each of you must work. Your greatest work is in your own personal life and development. Would this, then, be selfish? Indeed it is exactly opposite that for this reason: that which must be done in your own life is the casting out of self, forgetting of self, for in so doing, you become one who belongs to all, for all are a part of God, and as you belong to God, you belong to your fellowman. And in becoming this on this earth, you become as Christ preparing the way for Christ. People will see God and His works manifesting in you and in your life.

Now, as to those you would inquire about that you may witness to, those dear to your own heart that may be brought in and become a part of your group and share in these glorious blessings we would give this: Make known to them the joy of God, that is, as it has come to you. As they see God manifest in your life, even so may they accept it. Testify as to what has happened to you with faith in God in your heart, and these will come in great blessing to serve with you as part of this work.

Now see these things and fondle them in your heart that you may grow. And realize this, that those things which come now to you through this channel, it is the will of God that, rather than through this channel, that He may speak to each of you personally in your own heart. Would He then have each of you become a channel in the way as this one through which we now speak? Understand this, that this is not to be, because it is not necessary. And as it becomes unnecessary that this channel be used in this manner, this will cease to exist even through this channel. For what reason does it exist now? Simply that there might be a voice among you who can express outwardly what comes of God in each and every individual heart. And we would have you understand that nothing has come to the mind or heart of this channel, nothing has been spoken through this channel that you each may not feel, see, hear, realize, and speak of through that same God who lives in your own heart.

You ask then, what of the initiates? Must one be an initiate to experience these things of God? We would answer, no. This is not the criteria, as has been given. It is simply that those who were, those who had this experience had as might be called a head start before each of you, because they had knowledge of God from ages past. And it was with more ease that they approached, and it was with more ease that the knowledge of God was spoken through these that it might become known to each of you.

Seek, then, those things of God in your own heart and the knowledge of God that has come through you, through this channel to you in the language which you now speak, all this knowledge will be poured out in your own heart and your mind. It will become real to you in a way that far surpasses anything that can be spoken through your language because what will come to you will be a sharing of the experience itself. Rather than hearing of God, rather than of learning of Him through words of another, you will experience God.

You had an inkling of that tonight, and before in your own individual experiences. Could that be expressed? Could that blessing be told that another might understand? You realize that you cannot. There are limitation of language. God is not so limited. Therefore, we find that when this channel is shut off, when no longer are these Readings given, that what will be given in its place will be far greater, and it will dawn inside each of you as the words speak directly from God going through no channel but God expressing Himself in all knowledge through the heart of each one of you.

Now this, then, is that great blessing that God has in store that each of you may realize. As has been given before, the great arms of God are weighted down with the enormity of blessings from His storehouse, waiting for each of you, and impatiently He waits that they might be imparted. Grow now, little children, into men of God. Prepare your world for the dawning of the Day of our Lord.

We are through for now.

Conductor: Thank you, God.
